

CHAPTER 23
VOTER REGISTRATION IN STATE AGENCIES

721—23.1(75GA,ch1169) Definitions.

“Agency” means a voter registration agency as defined in 1994 Iowa Acts, chapter 1169, section 20.

“Applicant” means a person who is provided an application for services or assistance by a voter registration agency. This includes persons who have been accepted for services or assistance and who are submitting change of address notices or applications for renewal or recertification. The term also includes a person who has submitted an application for services or assistance and whose application has been rejected by the agency.

“Application” means the forms used to request services or assistance from a voter registration agency and which are used to determine eligibility. If no written form is required or used, “application” means the act of requesting services or assistance.

“Recertification” means a process initiated by the agency to reevaluate the applicant’s qualifications for services or assistance. This does not include regular reports by applicants to show continuing eligibility or compliance with agency requirements.

“Renewal” means the process of applying to continue to receive services or assistance from an agency after the prescribed time of service has passed.

721—23.2(75GA,ch1169) Registration forms. The use of electronic registration records and combined forms for voter registration and for application for services is encouraged. These forms shall be approved by the voter registration commission. Otherwise, the Iowa mail registration form shall be used. Agencies, such as military recruiting offices, which serve a substantial number of applicants who live outside the state of Iowa shall keep a supply of the Federal Election Commission’s national registration form.

721—23.3(75GA,ch1169) Declination forms. The offer of voter registration shall include a declination form in substantially the following form:

721—23.4(75GA,ch1169) Electronic declination records. The agency may offer the opportunity to register to vote orally and record the applicant’s responses electronically. The agency shall ask each applicant the following questions:

“Did you receive a copy of the Voter Registration Information brochure?” If the applicant has not received it, the agency shall provide the applicant with a copy of the brochure and shall review it with the applicant. Then the applicant shall be asked the following question:

“If you are not registered to vote where you live now, would you like to apply to register to vote here today?” (The applicant may answer yes or no. If the applicant does not answer, the applicant shall be presumed to have declined to register to vote.)

721—23.5(75GA,ch1169) Retention and storage of declination forms. Declination forms shall be retained by the agency receiving them for 22 months after the next general election following receipt of the form. Declination forms signed during the ten days before a general election, when registration is closed, shall be retained for 22 months after the general election to be held in two years. The forms shall be stored in a secure location where the safety and confidentiality of the records can be protected. If the applicant’s responses are stored electronically, the declination record shall be retained by the agency for the same period of time required for paper declination forms. The following schedule shall be followed:

721—23.6(75GA,ch1169) Distribution of voter registration forms. Every person who receives an application for services or assistance from a designated voter registration agency shall be given, along with the application, a voter registration form and the declination form described in rule 23.3(75GA,ch1169).

721—23.7(75GA,ch1169) Applications, recertifications, renewals and changes of address received from applicant representatives. Agencies which permit applicants to be represented by another person shall offer the opportunity to register to vote to each applicant. The declination form and registration form shall be given to the applicant's representative. If the applicant registers to vote, the applicant shall sign the form. The declination form and registration form shall be returned to the agency.

721—23.8(75GA,ch1169) Recertification and renewal applications. Applicants who apply in person for recertification and renewal of agency services or assistance shall be offered the opportunity to register to vote in the same way the offer is made to applicants making initial applications for services or assistance.

If the agency accepts recertification and renewal applications by telephone or by mail, the agency shall mail the applicant the declination form and a voter registration form.

721—23.9(75GA,ch1169) Change of address notices.

23.9(1) In person. The agency shall offer the opportunity to register to vote to each applicant who submits a change of address notice in person. The applicant shall be provided with the declination form and the voter registration form.

23.9(2) By telephone. Agencies are strongly urged to offer the opportunity to register to vote to applicants who submit changes of address by telephone. The applicant may be asked whether the change of address is intended for voter registration purposes. If the applicant says yes, the applicant shall be mailed a voter registration form.

23.9(3) By mail. Change of address forms provided by the agency shall include the declination form and a voter registration form. If the change of address is reported without the use of the form, the agency shall provide the applicant with a written verification of the reported change of address which instructs the applicant how to obtain a voter registration form.

721—23.10(75GA,ch1169) Ineligible applicants. The opportunity to register to vote must be offered to every applicant. The applicant, not the agency, is responsible for determining the applicant's eligibility to register to vote. The agency shall accept a registration form even if it is submitted by an applicant the agency believes to be ineligible to register to vote.

Applicants who are not accepted for services or assistance by an agency shall be offered the opportunity to register to vote. Voter registration forms shall be processed as required by 1994 Iowa Acts, chapter 1169, section 22, even if the applicant will not receive services or assistance from the agency.

These rules are intended to implement 1994 Iowa Acts, chapter 1169, section 20, subsection 3.
